I, (legal name) _____ give the Lander Art Center permission to include mental health information that I have included on this application for the sole purpose of the exhibition, “Reflection: the Art of Being” at the Lander Art Center from January 27th, 2022-March 11, 2022 unless stated otherwise by the artist(initial here) _____. No personal information in the realms of address, phone number, email will be released to the public in any capacity unless permission is given by the artist.

Advertising

- Lander Art Center guarantees three (3) weekly social media posts pertaining specifically to the current exhibition, at the discretion of Lander Art Center staff, posted on Facebook and Instagram for the duration of the exhibition.
- Lander Art Center guarantees promotional posters and postcards released in advance of the opening reception.
- If an artist provides professional media content for their gallery artwork, Lander Art Center will incorporate these media materials into the promotional posts mentioned above.
- Lander Art Center cannot guarantee specific advertising initiatives with local news outlets such as Lander Journal, Lander Radio, County 10, etc.

Show Set-Up and Take-Down

- Lander Art Center and its affiliated curators will be responsible for the set up of each show. Each exhibitor must clearly communicate any specific needs and expectations in artistic set-up i.e. order or grouping of pieces. Lander Art Center must be informed of any unusual set-up requests for approval and clearance. If an exhibitor wants to physically set up their own artwork, arrangements must be made in advance, and the exhibitor will forgo any subsequent compensation for the extra time commitment. Lander Art Center will have a staff member present.
- Each show must be taken down on the last day of the exhibition, the date of which will be thoroughly and consistently advertised.
- Take down will be the responsibility of exhibitors with the help of Lander Art Center staff. All exhibited artwork that has been purchased and not picked up will be held in the secure storage unit within Lander Art Center until each purchaser is able to retrieve them.

Sales and Commission

- Lander Art Center encourages the sales of artwork. Selling exhibited works is not required. Lander Art Center charges a 30% commission on exhibited works. Lander Art Center will not release art to a buyer without receiving payment and will pay the exhibitor following the closing of the exhibition. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to price their work accordingly.

Artist Statements and Stories

- Exhibitors may provide information or stories about their show or particular pieces in the show. This information must be presented when the exhibitor brings their art to the gallery. This allows Lander Art Center staff to familiarize themselves with relevant information to share with customers and community partners.

Label Cards

- Exhibitors MUST submit their label card information at LEAST five (5) days before opening reception. Label card information may be submitted in plain text format to exhibition@landerartcenter.com or in person to Lander Art Center’s front desk.

Opening Reception

- Lander Art Center will provide light refreshments such as hors d'oeuvres and wine/beer/non-alcoholic beverages. Exhibitors are expected to be present at the opening ceremony, the date and time of which will be thoroughly and consistently advertised.

Shipping

- Lander Art Center is NOT able to ship artwork: the responsibility of artwork shipment falls on each exhibitor. If an exhibitor would like to ship their art, the purchaser (client) will be informed that they (client) will pay for postage and wrapping. All of this must be negotiated with the artist directly, leaving Lander Art Center’s only shipping responsibility to exchange contact information with each party in a timely manner near the time of purchase.

_____ I, as the exhibitor, understand that Lander Art Center will take every reasonable step to ensure safe handling and exhibition of my art.

_____ I understand that Lander Art Center does not carry insurance for exhibited works of art. Therefore, I release Lander Art Center, its staff, members, employees, volunteers, and agents as free and harmless from any loss or damage or resulting cost or liability for my art during the time that my art is shipped to, from, and during the stay at Lander Art Center.

_____ I understand that Lander Art Center's hours are subject to minor changes throughout the course of this exhibition based on organizational capacity and employee availability.

_____ I understand that Lander Art Center rents out its gallery and classroom spaces and may therefore hold an event(s) during the time that my artwork is on display. In this case, the responsibility of liability falls on the renting party and any subsequent issues will be addressed by Lander Art Center and aforementioned renting party.

_____ I allow Lander Art Center use of artwork images taken in conjunction with the exhibition, preparation and take down, for the purposes of promoting the exhibition, during the exhibition, and in future promotions.

_____ I understand that I, the exhibitor, am not allowed to make permanent physical alterations to Lander Art Center's facilities without explicit permission from the director. I shall be responsible for any damages that may occur as a result of my artistic displays.

_____ I understand that Lander Art Center maintains the right to terminate this contract at any time with minimum one (1) week's notice in writing via either email or physical mailing. Under this circumstance I, the exhibitor, will be required to coordinate, and will be responsible for coordinating, the removal of my art from the gallery. Please include either your email address or physical address as your chosen form of contractual communication:

_____ I understand that I maintain the right to terminate this contract with at least one (1) week's notice given to Lander Art Center. Notice must be given in writing to either director@landerartcenter.com or 258 Main Street, Lander, WY, 82520.

_____ I allow Lander Art Center to release my name, phone number, e-mail, social media and website address to the public for sales and promotion purposes.

_____ I understand that Lander Art Center will encourage the sales of my artwork and will charge a __% commission. Lander Art Center will not release art to a buyer without receiving payment and will pay me, the exhibitor, following the closing of the exhibition.

_____ I have carefully read this waiver, release, and agreement. I fully understand its contents. I am aware that this is a release of liabilities and a contract between Lander Art Center, its staff, members, volunteers, and myself and agents and I sign it of my own free will. I agree that this waiver, release, and agreement is to be binding on my heirs and assigns.
